

Furkan Türkyılmaz

Furkan Türkyılmaz is a curator and art educator working in the field of interdisciplinary art and spatial design. Türkyılmaz, who teaches watercolour and sketching, develops experimental exhibitions and community-oriented projects by addressing the relationship between contemporary and traditional art in the context of art-urban-architecture. Türkyılmaz, who contributes to many international activities, pursues alternative views on space.

Türkyılmaz, who has been involved in many collaborative art projects, has participated in various architectural competitions and won awards. He continues to produce with his works aiming to bring people together with art and develop new perspectives.